

ORGANIZING INTERN

Chicago United for Equity is looking for a dynamic, talented, and motivated individual to join the organization as a part-time intern to support our work in community organizing.

About us

CUE works to build a racially just, equitable, and inclusive Chicago. We do this by connecting and supporting community-based and city-wide networks of individuals who are leading innovative racial justice reforms across Chicago. Our work exists at the intersection of organizing, policy, and law to address the root causes of inequity.

Description

We are seeking an organizing intern who has served as an experienced team leader. This intern will lead projects in grassroots environments and plan engagements to support our network.

The successful candidate will demonstrate a deep commitment to racial justice and second-to-none communication skills. Additionally, all members of the CUE team are expected to have strong self-awareness, commitment to equity within the workplace, and a strong sense of urgency (aka hustle). This is a start-up organization responding to an ever-changing movement, so successful candidates will demonstrate the ability to think quickly, critically, and iterate collaboratively in a team environment. Humility and a sense of humor is appreciated.

Responsibilities

- Plan and coordinate details for upcoming efforts to amplify racial equity issues in upcoming elections
- Support grassroots communities seeking to set up strong organizing practices

Qualifications

- Event planning and execution
- Working in multigenerational, multiracial leadership settings
- Develop and oversee strong team structures and cultures
- Can describe strong team leadership models and practices
- Multilingual ability is a strong plus

Applicants should submit a resume and cover letter to chicagounitedforequity@gmail.com with the subject line: "Organizing Intern." Applications reviewed on a rolling basis.
